4. Execution of Agreements

4.1. The framework agreement:

4.1.1. The framework Agreement shall be made if the Customer is willing to:

- open a payment account with the Bank; and/or
- execute individual or successive payment transactions where the Bank requires to open a payment account with the Bank.

4.1.2. The framework agreement shall be deemed executed when the Bank and the Customer agree on the terms and conditions for opening the payment account.

- 4.2. The one-off payment agreement:
 - 4.2.1. The one-off payment agreement shall be entered into, if the user of payment services requests a one-off payment transaction, for execution of which the Bank does not require to open a payment account.
 - 4.2.2. The one-off payment agreement shall be deemed executed, when the Bank and the Customer agree on the terms and conditions for providing a one-off payment service.
- 4.3. Other agreements on payment services:
 - 4.3.1. If the framework agreement does not establish the provision of certain payment services, the Bank and the Customer shall have the right to execute separate agreements on such payment services.
 - 4.3.2. If regarding certain payment services separate agreements have been executed, and it is necessary for the Customer to open a payment account, the provisions of the framework agreement shall be additionally applied to the relations between the parties in connection with such payment services.

5. Commission fee, interest rates and currency exchange

- 5.1. In consideration for payment transactions executed and/or related services provided by the Bank, the Customer shall pay to the Bank a commission fee in the amount fixed by the Bank.
- 5.2. The commission fee amount shall be specified in the pricelist.
- 5.3. The Bank shall be entitled to debit the commission fee from the Customer's payment account in which the payment transaction is executed. The Bank shall be entitled to debit the commission fee from the Customer's other accounts opened with the Bank. In the cases established by the Bank, the Customer shall pay the commission fee in cash prior to the payment transaction.
- 5.4. If the payment transaction is executed using the payment account, and the funds in the Customer's payment account are insufficient for executing the payment transaction and for payment of the commission fee, the Bank shall have the right to reject the payment transaction.
- 5.5. The commission fee shall be paid in the transaction currency. In case the transaction currency differs from the commission fee currency indicated in the pricelist, the Bank shall convert the respective commission fee indicated in the pricelist into the transaction currency.
- 5.6. The Customer shall undertake to ensure that the funds in the payment account are sufficient to pay/debit the commission fee. If the funds in the payment account are insufficient for paying/debiting of the commission fee in the transaction currency, the Bank shall have the right to apply the Reference Exchange Rate and convert the account currency into the transaction currency.
- 5.7. The Bank shall not be liable for the Customer's losses incurred due to changes to the exchange rates.
- 5.8. No interest shall be paid on the balance in the payment account, unless the Bank decides otherwise.
- 5.9. If payment transactions executed in the Customer's account result in a debt to the Bank, the Customer shall pay the interest to the Bank defined in the agreement or the pricelist until the debt is covered.
- 5.10. The Bank shall apply the changed Reference Exchange Rate immediately and without further notice. Information on any changes made by the Bank in the Reference Exchange Rate shall be made available on the Bank's website or at the Bank's service centers, unless the Bank and the Customer have agreed otherwise.
- 5.11. If for whatever reason the payment account has been overrun the Customer shall immediately cover the overrun amount in the payment account. The Customer shall pay the interest specified in the pricelist of the Bank for the overrun amount in the payment account. The duty to immediately cover the overrun amount in the payment account shall survive independently of whether or not such interest is paid by the Customer. If a credit limit is allowed in the payment account under a separate agreement between the Bank and the Customer, the payment account balance is considered to have been overrun if the credit limit granted by the said agreement is overdrawn.
- 5.12. If the Customer fails to duly pay the Bank the fee for the provided services, the Customer shall pay a default interest rate of 0.05% to the Bank for each day overdue.

If the payment order was received at the Bank after the time specified in the Rules or on a Bank non-business day, it shall be deemed that the payment order was received at the Bank on the first Bank business day following the day when the payment order was submitted to the Bank. The Bank shall be entitled to debit the amount of the payment order and the commission fee from the Customer's payment account on the day when the payment order was submitted to the Bank. The Customer must ensure that the balance in the account is sufficient to execute the payment order not only at the moment when the payment order is submitted but also at the moment when funds are debited from the payment account.
- 6.4.2. By agreement between the Customer initiating the payment order and the Bank, the execution of the payment order may commence on any specific day or at the end of a certain period or, if the Customer is the payer, on the day when the Customer provides funds to the Bank. In the cases established in this clause the payment order shall be deemed received at the Bank on such agreed date. If the agreed date is a Bank non-business day, the payment order shall be deemed received on the following Bank business day

6.5. Terms for providing payment services

Specific terms for executing payment orders are indicated in the pricelist. This section provides the longest terms for executing payment orders. The Bank shall ensure that from the moment of receipt of a payment order at the Bank the payment transaction funds in euros are credited to the account of the payee's payment service provider within the following terms:

- 6.5.1. When the payee's account is held at the payment service provider registered in the Republic of Lithuania and a payment order is submitted in euros - on the same business day, if a payment order was received at the Bank on the Bank business day before the time set in the pricelist. If the moment of receipt of a payment order is after the time set in the pricelist or on a Bank non-business day – not later than on the following Bank business day;
- 6.5.2. When the payee's account is held at the payment service provider registered in other Member State and a payment order is submitted in euros – within the term set in the pricelist, but not later than by the end of the next Bank business day.
The terms for executing a payment order specified in clauses 6.5.1. and 6.5.2. may be prolonged by 1 (one) business day when the payment transaction is initiated on the basis of a paper document.
- 6.5.3. If payment transactions are executed within the Republic of Lithuania or funds are transferred to other Member States in the currencies of non-euro area countries or in the currencies of foreign states and the Customer is the payer, the Bank shall undertake to ensure that upon receipt of a payment order the payment transaction amount is credited to the account of the payee's payment service provider not later than within 4 (four) Bank business days from the moment of receipt of a payment order at the Bank.
- 6.5.4. If payment transactions are executed in the currencies of foreign states or in the currencies of the Member States and money transfer is made to foreign states, and if the Customer is the payer, the terms for crediting the payment transaction to the account of the payee's payment service provider shall be set in the pricelist.
- 6.5.5. In the case defined in clause 6.4.2 of the present Rules, if credit transfers are made in euros within the Republic of Lithuania, the Bank shall ensure that the amount of the payment transaction is credited to the account of the payee's payment service provider on the day of execution of a payment order, and if the day of execution of a payment order is a Bank non-business day – on the next Bank business day.
- 6.5.6. If the Customer is the payee, the Bank shall ensure the possibility for the Customer to use the payment transaction amount in the payment account immediately after such amount is credited to the Bank's account and after the Bank has received the entire relevant information required for this purpose. In those cases when the Customer is the payee and the Bank has provided the possibility for the Customer to use the payment transaction funds in advance, although the funds have not been credited to the Bank's account yet, the Bank shall be entitled to debit the credited funds and accrued interest if the funds were not credited to the Bank's account on the following Bank business day. In case the funds in the Customer's account are not sufficient to debit the credited amount, the Customer shall, immediately after the Bank's first request, repay the credited amount and the interest paid by the Bank. In those cases when an unauthorized overdraft appears on the account, the Bank shall calculate the interest specified in the pricelist on the overdrawn balance of the account.
- 6.5.7. If the Customer is the payee, the Bank shall undertake to ensure that the payment order initiated by the Customer or through the Customer is transferred to the payer's payment service provider within the term agreed by the Customer and the Bank.
- 6.5.8. When executing payment transactions in the currencies of foreign states or in the currencies of the Member States to foreign states the Bank shall not be liable for mistakes made by the mediator and/or the payee's payment services provider, and/or for overdue terms for executing a payment order, and/or for non-execution/improper execution of a payment order through the fault of the mediator and/or the payee's payment services provider.
- 6.5.9. The duration of execution of any other payment services shall be defined under agreements, the Pricelist or other documents (e.g. requests, applications, questionnaires).
- 6.6. In the cases where the payment account currency and the payment transaction currency differ, the Bank shall credit the payment account in the payment transaction currency – the Bank shall automatically open an additional payment account in the payment transaction currency with the same unique identifier and shall credit the funds into it. If the Customer (legal person) uses the payment account that may be linked to the Card, the Bank shall credit the funds in the manner described herein only if the payment transaction currency is the US dollars; in other cases the Bank shall not open the account automatically but shall ask the Customer (legal person) to indicate/clarify the account number to which the funds should be credited. If the Customer (legal person) fails to clarify the payment account number, the Bank shall return the funds to the payer. If the Customer (natural or legal person) previously held the payment account in the transaction currency however it was closed, the Bank shall not open the account automatically but shall ask the Customer to indicate/clarify the account number to which the funds should be credited. If the Customer fails to clarify the payment account number, the Bank shall refund the amounts to the payer; The Bank shall apply the commission fee specified in the pricelist for clarification of the account number.
- 6.7. The Customer, who is willing in the case defined in clause 6.6. to use for payment with the Card other (than the currency in which the Card-linked payment account is maintained) currency available in the additional payment account, shall convert it into the currency in which the Card-linked payment account is maintained. On the ATM screen the Customer/Cardholder may only view the balance in the currency in which the Card-linked payment account is maintained.
- 6.8. Agreements may define a limit for payment transactions executed using a certain payment instrument and/or Customer Identification Tool.

7. Special provisions applicable to particular payment services

7.1. The section presents special provisions characteristic of the below indicated payment services.

7.2. Payment Cards

- 7.2.1. The Customer can use the own funds and the issued credit limit in the credit Card in the Card linked to Payment Account by means of a Card. Once the Customer has submitted an application in the form set by the Bank and all of the documents specified by the Bank have been received by the Bank, and after the Bank has made a positive decision, the Bank initiates the production of the Card to be linked with the Customer's Payment Card specified by the Customer. At the Customer's request a Card may be issued not only to the Customer but also to another person specified by the Customer, i.e. to a Cardholder. The Customer or the Cardholder (in case a Card is issued to Customer's specified person) may use a Card by utilizing a Digital Wallet only on a device which is accessible only to the Customer or Cardholder and/or which is secured against accidental or intentional use by third parties (e.g. with PIN code, Biometrics, other security measures known only to the Customer / Cardholder). The Card shall be delivered by the Bank to the Customer by mail to the address specified by the Customer or to the Bank's customer service center. The Bank sends the PIN code to the Cardholder by mail/to the customer service center separately from the Card or provides it in the Internet bank. In case a new payment Card is renewed, the PIN code remains the same. The Card shall be valid until the last day of the month of the year stated on it. The Card shall remain the property of the Bank.
- 7.2.2. A new Card issued to the Customer by the Bank is not activated. The Customer cannot execute Card transactions before he/she activates the Card on the internet bank, by telephone or at the Bank's customer service center. The Customer can use payment card until it's expiry date. The expiry year and month are specified on the Card. Card expires on the next day of the end of the expiry month. The Bank can change Card's expiry date with the notice of the Customer. If the Card is enabled by the Bank for the use with a Digital Wallet, the Customer or the Cardholder may use such Card for transactions by utilizing such Digital Wallet, according to the instructions and Terms and Conditions of the Digital Wallet Service Provider. The Bank does not provide Digital Wallet service and is not liable for the correct operation of any Digital Wallet. The Customer is liable to follow the instructions of the Digital Wallet Service Provider in the use of the respective Digital Wallet.
- 7.2.3. A few Cards can be issued to use one payment account by the Customer or persons specified by him or her.
- 7.2.4. When submitting an application for issuing an additional Card in the name of another person, the Customer must familiarise the latter with the terms and conditions for the issue and use of payment Cards irrespective of where they were provided to the Customer as well as the present Rules and shall be liable for the latter observes them. In case the Customer is a private individual, an application to replace an additional Card that has not expired can be submitted by the Customer or by the Cardholder. In case the Customer is a legal entity, an application for replacing the valid Payment Card may be submitted only by the Customer's authorised representative.
- 7.2.5. The Customer and any other Cardholder, besides other obligations pursuant to the agreement, shall also be obligated to:
- keep the Card safe from temperature and electromagnetic field effects and physical damage; keep the PIN in secret (memorize the PIN and destroy the PIN envelope), neither write the PIN on the Card, paper, or anything usually kept with the Card nor keep the PIN in any other form;
 - keep all Card and/or Digital Wallet (information specified on the Card or in the Digital Wallet) data in secret, including safety verification code sent by SMS;
 - remove the Card from Digital Wallet on any device the Customer is no longer intending to use and/or which may be used by a third party;
 - effect Card transactions and in the Card-linked payment account in accordance with the requirements of the legal acts;
 - inform the Bank in case of any threat that money may be debited from the Card-linked payment account without the Customer's being aware of that;
 - if Customer would like to block the Card temporarily, it should be done via Internet Bank, if Customer is a user of it;
 - notify of a loss of the Card, its data or device having the Digital Wallet, to which the Card is linked to, without delay following the procedure laid down in the Rules by telephone No. +370 5 239 3444; information about any changes of the indicated telephone numbers is made publicly available on the Bank's Internet website;
 - inform the Bank in case any security measure, applied to the device having Digital Wallet, to which the Card is linked to, has become known to any third party.
- 7.2.6. The Card may be used only by the Cardholder whose data is available on the Card. The Customer shall ensure that the holder of the additional Card performs the duties stipulated in the agreement with regard to the Card issue. The Customer shall be fully responsible and liable for any loss arising in consequence of unauthorised actions performed by the holder of the additional Card. The Customer shall be entitled at any time to block the use of the additional Card and cancel generation of payment orders using the Card on the internet bank or by written notification to the Bank.
- 7.2.7. To make payments for goods or services by a payment Card or to give consent to reserve them in e-stores (online) the Cardholder must use the secure on-line payment service provided by the Bank. In case the secure on-line payment service is not activated and/or a Card transaction is not additionally confirmed by the method set by the Bank, the Bank shall be entitled to refuse to process the transaction initiated by using the information specified on Card only. In some cases depending on the e-store local (on-line) technical solutions, settlements in an individual e-store location (on-line) may be performed with or without the use of the secure on-line payment service, however in such cases the Bank is entitled to refuse to perform the transaction.

- 7.2.8. The Customer shall register the Card for the secure on-line payment service in the Internet bank or the mobile app. When paying by Card for goods/services in e-stores (online), the Cardholder shall additionally confirm a transaction with the Customer Identification Tool. The list of the Customer Identification Tools suitable to confirm transactions on e-stores (on-line) is published on the Bank's website and/or in these Rules. Should the Cardholder fail to perform or improperly performs the confirmation of the transaction by using the Customer Identification Tool, the Bank shall be entitled to either block the Card or to ban the use of the respective Card for transactions performed in e-stores (on-line), or to suspend the provision of services through the Internet Bank. The Customer may withdraw from the secure on-line payment service in the Internet bank, by visiting a Bank's customer service center or by telephone number specified in sub-clause 7.2.5.
- 7.2.9. The Cardholder may be additionally charged the fees applicable by the owners of online merchants, Internet connection and software.
- 7.2.10. With a notice to the Bank, the Customer/Cardholder shall be entitled to refuse the use of the Card at any time. Where the Customer/Cardholder is not willing to renew the Card he/she must notify the Bank of that at least 2 (two) months prior to the expiry date of the Card. If the Customer/Cardholder fails to inform the Bank in a timely and proper manner about his intention to stop the use of the Card, the Bank shall renew the Card automatically and acquire the right to charge the Customer a fee for the Card issuance/renewal or monthly Card usage. The payment Card is renewed automatically provided that:
- 7.2.10.1 at least one transaction was made by using the debit Card within the past 2 (two) months, excluding two last months of the Card validity term;
- 7.2.10.2. at least one transaction was made by using the credit Card within the past 5 (five) months, excluding two last months of the Card validity term;;
- 7.2.10.3. there is no debt in the account. If there are insufficient funds in the account for 3 months in a row to debit the monthly fee for the use of the payment Card, the Customer will receive a registered letter to the indicated correspondence address (for the first 3 months customer is notified about the debt via e-mail and message in internet bank) indicating the amount of arrears and the deadline by which the debt must be paid. If the debt is not repaid within the set deadline, the Card will be closed on the 28th day of the fourth month.
- 7.2.11. At the time of the Card renewal the Customer/Cardholder shall have the right to choose whether or not the Customer/Cardholder's name and surname should be specified on the Card with the Lithuanian alphabet diacritic symbols. The Customer must notify the Bank at least 2 (two) months prior to the Card expiry if the Customer/Cardholder wishes the Customer/Cardholder's name and surname to be indicated on the Card with/without using the Lithuanian alphabet diacritic symbols. If the Customer/Cardholder fails to notify the Bank in a timely and proper manner, the Bank shall automatically renew the Card with the Customer/Cardholder's name and surname indicated using the same symbols as they appeared before the Card renewal and the Bank shall acquire the right to charge the Customer a Card issue/renewal fee.
- 7.2.12. The Bank shall produce to the Customer/Cardholder the Card of the same type as the expired (blocked, lost, damaged) Card. In case the Bank does not distribute this type of Cards any longer, the Card that is closest by its usability and features (not necessarily of the same international payment Card organisation Visa and/or MasterCard and/or other) and of the same type (debit and/or credit) will be produced to the Customer/Cardholder. If the Customer does not agree to use another type of payment Card, he has the right to terminate the Card agreement without paying any fees by submitting a written request to the Bank.
- 7.2.13. In case the Customer/Cardholder does not activate the Card within 90 (ninety) calendar days from the Card ordering or renewal date, the Bank shall have the right to destroy the produced/renewed Card, and the Customer must pay the Card issue fee. The paid Card issue fee shall not be refunded.
- 7.2.14. The Customer/Cardholder shall return the Card to the Bank, at the Bank's request, in case the Card has expired or the relationships between the Bank and the Customer relating to the Card usage have ended, or the Customer has refused to use the Card following the established procedure. Termination of the agreement, ended relationships between the Bank and the Customer relating to the Card usage and/or refusal of the Card or closing of the account shall not release the Customer and/or the Cardholder from his obligation to cover all liabilities occurred when using the Card, information about the Card/payment account or due to any other circumstances related to the Card or the payment account.
- 7.2.15. The Bank shall be entitled, without any negative consequences to the Bank, to cancel the Card in case of the Customer's failure to enter the PIN code correctly or in case of any threat that the Card might be exposed to unauthorised use. In this case the service provision shall be renewed by the Bank's decision. At renewing the service providing in cases when the service providing was suspended due to the Customer's fault, the Customer shall be charged the Commission Fee set in the Bank's pricelist (including the Commission Fee for issuing a new Card).
- 7.2.16. Having established or suspected that the Card might be exposed to unauthorised use or used otherwise than for intended purpose, the Bank shall restrict the use of the Card. In cases where the Card is used in an ATM, the ATM shall not return the Card and the representative of the sale or service point authorised to accept Card payments for the products or services has the right to hold it.
- 7.2.17. In cases where payment transactions are processed in the currency other than the Card-linked payment account currency and with mediation of Visa and/or MasterCard international payment Card organisations, the payment transaction currency is converted into the Card-linked payment account currency, at the currency exchange rate set by the international payment Card organisations plus the currency exchange rate charged by the Bank as specified in the Pricelist; The currency exchange charge shall be included into the exchange rate applied to the currency exchange transaction and shall not separately debited or seen in the account statement. The currency exchange rate on the day of debiting/crediting the payment transaction amount may differ from the exchange rate on the day of execution/initiation of the transaction.
- 7.2.18. Payment transactions by Card abroad may be effected in any other legal foreign currency.
- 7.2.19. If the Customer is an individual person, the Cardholder and the Customer shall be jointly liable for any transactions effected with the Card issued in the name of the Cardholder and payment of the Commission

Fee applicable to them and the account maintenance or making any other payments. If the customer is a legal entity the Customer shall assume full responsibility for any transactions effected by the Cardholder and payment of any Commission Fee applicable to them and the account maintenance or making any other payments.

- 7.2.20. The Customer shall pay the Commission Fee related to the Card (both principal and additional) issuing, acquiring, using as charged by the Bank, as well as any interest for the use of the credit limit in the Card-linked payment account, default interest and penalties following the procedure indicated in the present Rules and the General Service Rules of the Bank. The Bank shall be entitled to debit the accrued Commission Fee and other payments for the services provided by the Bank under the agreement from the payment account. If the payment account balance is zero or insufficient, an overdraft occurs in the Customer/s payment account. The Customer shall repay such overdraft to the Bank and pay the interest fixed in the pricelist.
- 7.2.21. The Bank is providing possibility for the Customer to get acquainted with the the information on currency exchange rates which are applied for cross currency payments by international payment Card organisations on the Bank's website.
- 7.2.22. The Bank may apply additional services to separate types of Cards (e.g. travel insurance, purchase insurance, etc.) the description/rules of which shall be provided to the Customer Cardon the Bank's website. When using additional services the Customer must comply with the service terms, conditions and procedure established by additional service providers. The relevant terms, rules and contact information for additional services are provided on the Bank's website. The Bank shall have the right on its own discretion to change the additional service terms, the provider of additional services or withdraw from some or all additional services with at least a 30 days' notice published on the Bank's website.
- 7.2.23. Due to certain specifics of the Card as a tool for disposing of and managing the payment account and the requirements of Visa and/or MasterCard international payment Card organizations in special cases where transactions in the payment account are effected using the Card, the execution of transactions initiated by the Customer from the Bank's funds by way of overrunning the payment account balance is possible. In such case the Customer has to cover the overrun amount in the payment account pursuant to the procedure and under terms stipulated in clause 5.11 of the Rules.
- 7.2.24. Subject to receipt of the Customer/Cardholder's consent to pay by Card, the Bank shall reserve the transaction amount in the Card-linked payment account and shall debit it upon receipt from the payee of information and confirmation as to Card transactions. The Bank shall cancel reservation of funds in the Card-linked account if within 9 calendar days from the date of reservation of funds receives from the payee no information and confirmation as to Card transactions.
- 7.2.25. In certain cases (depending on the Card and/or Card reader settings) the Cardholder is allowed to pay by Card without checking the balance of the account linked to it. In this case the Bank shall not reserve funds in the Card-linked account and shall debit them upon receipt from the payee of information on Card transactions.
- 7.2.26. In those cases where the Customer/Cardholder gives consent to the payee to initiate a payment transaction under the agreement entered into between the the Customer and the payee (hotels, car rental companies, etc.), the Bank may debit funds from the Card-linked account later than the consent was given by the Customer/Cardholder.
- 7.2.27. If the Card has the activated contactless payment functionality the Cardholder may, without PIN confirmation, execute payment transactions in the amount not exceeding the limit set in a particular Card reader and in the Card.
- 7.2.28. The Contactless payment functionality is first activated automatically once a transaction is performed using a PIN code.
- 7.2.29. After the Contactless payment functionality was First activated, the Card-linked account holder may activate/inactivate the Contacless payment functionality of the Card on the internet bank. The Contactless payment functionality will be activate/deactivated once the Cardholder has executed a Card transaction confirmed with PIN. The Contactless payment functionality may be activated/deactivated also under other procedure established by the Bank.
- 7.2.30. The Bank shall be entitled, with prior notification given to the Customer/Cardholder, to suspend (terminate) the validity of the Card issued to the Customer/Cardholder. In such case the Bank shall produce a Card of the same type and class free of charge. If the Bank no longer distributes Cards of the respective type or class, the Bank shall produce the most similar type (debit and/or credit) Card closest in view of its usability and features (not necessarily of the same international payment Card organization Visa and/or MasterCard and/or other).
- 7.2.31. The Bank applies standard cash withdrawal and payment transaction limits to payment Cards, as provided for in paragraph 7.2.32. of the Conditions. Respective limits apply to payment transactions performed using Digital Wallet.
- 7.2.32. Card types and standard cash withdrawal and payment transaction limits:
- Visa Debit: the total amount of cash withdrawal transactions within 24 hours - 1500 Eur. The total amount of payments for goods within 24 hours - 4000 Eur.

The total amount of payments for goods within 24 hours - 8700 Eur. These Cards issued before 2020-02-01 are subject to a 10-transaction limit for withdrawing money within 24 hours.
- 7.2.33. Due to security reasons, the bank applies the limit for cash withdrawal from ATMs, equipped only with the technology for reading magnetic lines – this limit is 350 Eur per 24 hours. Cards issued before 2020-02-

01 are not subject to this condition.

7.2.34. The Customer may change the limits for cash withdrawal and payment transactions applicable to the payment CCard (or restore the standard limits to the payment Card after the change) in the Internet Bank, by submitting application form, or via phone or at the Bank's customer service center. Changing the limits applied to the payment Cards is a paid service, the price of which is announced in the Price list.

7.2.35. The reasons due to which Card or the credit limit, which is tied to a credit Card can be terminated, are:

- if the Customer has not performed operations for more than 1 (one) year;
- if there are no activated credit Cards in the credit Card account for more than 60 days;
- if the Card is temporarily blocked for more than 60 days;
- if there are insufficient funds in the account for 3 months in a row to debit the monthly fee for the use of the payment Card, the Customer receives a registered letter to the indicated correspondence address (for the first 3 months customer is informed about the debt via e-mail and message in internet bank) indicating the amount of arrears and the deadline by which the debt must be paid. If the debt is not repaid within the set deadline, the Card will be closed on the 28th day of the fourth month.
- in the case of an additional Card, the account agreement concluded with the Cardholder shall expire.

7.3. Execution of payment transactions via Internet bank.

This clause refers to the peculiarities of payment transactions executed via Internet bank.

7.3.1. Payment transactions performed in the Internet bank shall be authorized using the means of customer identification that must be protected by the Customer/account user in accordance with the procedure set in these payment service rules. The documents confirmed in such manner shall be considered confirmed by the Customer and shall have the same legal power as hard-copy documents signed by the Customer or his representative.

7.3.2. The Bank shall undertake to suspend the Internet bank service immediately in case the Customer/account user 5 (five) times has failed to log in using Customer personal identification means/ the means provided by the Bank. The Internet bank service may be renewed after the Customer/account user has come to the Bank or has called to the Bank's given telephone number.

7.3.3. The Bank shall be entitled, without any negative consequences to the Bank, not to execute the Customer's payment orders or to suspend the Internet bank service due to technical disorders that might harm the Internet bank or the Customer or in case there is a threat that the Internet bank may become exposed to unauthorised access, or in case payment orders have not been submitted according to the Internet bank requirements, or in case the funds in the Customer's account are not sufficient to make all payments, or in case payment orders received from the Customer cannot be executed due to other important reasons, including assurance of the Internet bank security. The Bank shall notify the Customer in the manner indicated in these Rules and/or make such information available on the Internet bank. In this case the service provision shall be renewed by the Bank's decision.

7.3.4. The Customer/account user shall ensure security of the Customer identification means entrusted to him or her: the Customer shall have no right to transfer them to another person or to another account user, or to any other representative of the Customer; the Customer shall undertake to keep them in secret, not to write them down on paper or on other items, and keep them in the form other than provided by the Bank.

7.3.5. In case of a threat that the Customer identification means have become known to third persons (hereinafter - lost), the Customer/account user shall immediately notify the Bank in writing or by the telephone number indicated on the Bank's website. In case the loss of the Customer identification means is related to third-party fraudulent actions, the Customer/account user must immediately report to the law enforcement authorities.

7.3.6. While using the Internet bank the Customer may conclude transactions set by the Bank. The Bank shall be entitled to unilaterally terminate the possibility to conclude all or any part of transactions via Internet bank or establish other requirements. By granting the right to manage and use the funds in the Customer's account, the Customer shall enable the account users jointly or separately to create specific rights and obligations to the Customer, obtain the Customer's personal information or information and data intended solely to the Customer.

7.3.7. Transactions are made once the Customer has filled out the set form in the Internet bank and has confirmed the fact of making an offer to conclude the transaction using the Customer identification means and provided that other conditions set by the Bank have been fulfilled. The Bank shall notify the Customer of the acceptance of the offer under the procedure established by the Bank. This does not mean that the Bank in any case must accept the Customer's offer or inform the Customer of accepting the offer with a further notice.

7.3.8. The Bank may apply the transaction limits set by the Bank to payment transactions that are made using the Internet bank. The procedure for applying payment transaction limits is published on the Bank's website.

7.3.9. The Customer shall agree with the Bank in writing, in the form set by the Bank, on the list of the Payment Accounts to be used in the Internet bank and the account users assigned by the Customer, who are authorised to use the Internet bank as well as the rights granted to them. The Bank shall assign individual Customer identification means to each account user.

7.3.10. The provisions related to the account use by electronic means as described in this section do not imply the Bank's commitment to grant the Customer access to the Internet bank.

7.3.11. The Bank, with prior notification to the Customer, shall be entitled to not accept a particular Customer Identification Tool, replace the existing tools and accept the new Customer Identification Tool acceptable to the Bank.

7.3.12. The Bank, with prior notification to the Customer, shall be entitled to change the Login Code.

- 7.4.2.13. The payer shall ensure that the balance of the account from which automated payments of the e-invoice will be made is sufficient in euros to make the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment and to debit the Commission Fee.
- 7.4.2.14. Following the payer's instruction to execute a partial payment of the e-invoice following the procedure established by the Bank, such payment shall be executed provided that the balance of the account from which an automated payment of the e-invoice will be made is sufficient to transfer more than 50 % of the amount specified in the e-invoice and to debit the Commission Fee.
- 7.4.2.15. In case the e-invoice amount exceeds the maximum payment amount specified by the payer and the payer has permitted to make partial payment of the e-invoice, the Bank shall execute a partial payment in the amount that does not exceeds the maximum payment amount.
- 7.4.2.16. Within the effective term of the order to execute an automated payment, the payer may revoke the automated payment of a specific e-invoice without terminating the execution of the order to make an E. invoice automatic payment in respect of other e-invoices.
- 7.4.2.17. The Bank shall perform the Order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment irrespective of the submitted credit E-Invoices and shall make no set-off between the submitted debit E-Invoices and Credit E-Invoices.
- 7.4.2.18. In case the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment was submitted from the account from which an automated payment of the e-invoice will be made, the co-holders or any of them shall have the right to revoke/change the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment, pay the e-invoices, view the e-invoice related information irrespective of the account management method
- 7.4.2.19. The payer can change the following conditions of the order to execute an automated credit transfer without the Bank's consent:
 - 7.4.2.19.1. validity start date, (can be changed if the validity start date specified in the order to execute a credit transfer is later than the date of its change);
 - 7.4.2.19.2. validity end date;
 - 7.4.2.19.3. maximum payment amount;
 - 7.4.2.19.4. monthly limit;
 - 7.4.2.19.5. feature specifying whether or not a partial payment of the e-invoice is permitted;
 - 7.4.2.19.6. e-invoice payment execution date;
 - 7.4.2.19.7. number of additional attempts to make the e-invoice payment by an E. invoice automatic payment.

The changes in the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment shall come into effect on the following business day and shall apply to the relevant e-invoices unpaid and partially paid that were received/submitted both before and after changing the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment provided that their payment due date has not expired.

- 7.4.2.20. In case the e-invoice sender changes the code which is specified in the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment and granted by the e-invoice sender to the e-invoice receiver or to another person, whose e-invoices the e-invoice receiver wishes to pay, without changing any other conditions of the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment, the code specified in the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment shall be automatically deemed to have been changed respectively.
- 7.4.2.21. The amounts charged in fulfilment of the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment may be refunded to the payer following the procedure set in Section 11 of these Rules.
- 7.4.2.22. By performing the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment, the Bank shall use the data submitted by the e-invoice sender to generate a payment. The Bank shall not be liable for the correctness of the e-invoice data submitted thereto and for the amount of the e-invoices delivered by the e-invoice sender.
- 7.4.2.23. The Bank shall not be liable for not paying the e-invoice in the following cases:
- 7.4.2.23.1. The e-invoice sender or another payment service provider did not send the e-invoice documents to the Bank or sent them when the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment could not be effected under the conditions specified therein;
- 7.4.2.23.2. The order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment was not executed due to the insufficient balance to pay the Bank's commission fee.
- 7.4.2.24. The Bank's liability relating to the transactions effected on the basis of the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment and actions performed shall be limited the amount of direct material losses incurred by the payer.
- 7.4.2.25. The Bank shall not effect the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment in the following cases:
- 7.4.2.25.1. the e-invoice is not submitted;
- 7.4.2.25.2. The e-invoice amount exceeds the maximum payment amount and/or the monthly limit specified in the payer's order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment;
- 7.4.2.25.3. the funds in the account from which an automated payment of the e-invoice will be made is insufficient in euros to complete a transaction and to debit the Commission Fee;
- 7.4.2.25.4. the funds in the account from which an automated payment of the e-invoice will be made are seized or the payer's right to use the funds in the account is subject to other restrictions;
- 7.4.2.25.5. in other cases prescribed by laws of the Republic of Lithuania or provided for in the bank account agreement entered into between the payer and the Bank, when the Bank has the right or is obligated to reject orders to debit funds from the account from which an automated payment of the e-invoice will be made.
- 7.4.2.26. The order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment shall cease to have effect from the moment when at least one of the following documents becomes invalid:
- 7.4.2.26.1. the payer's application for e-invoice delivery;
- 7.4.2.26.2. the bank account agreement entered into between the Bank and the Payer;
- 7.4.2.26.3. the e-invoicing agreement concluded between the Bank and the e-invoice sender;
- 7.4.2.26.4. the agreement on the conditions for e-invoicing and refund to payers made between the Bank and the e-invoice sender's payment service provider;
- 7.4.2.26.5. the agreement on e-invoicing to payers made between the Bank and other payment service providers.
- 7.4.2.27. The Bank or the Payer shall have the right to revoke the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment any time with notice to each other given following the procedure set in these Rules. In case the Payer revokes the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment, the e-invoices shall be still delivered to the Payer in the way specified thereby.
- 7.4.2.28. The Bank shall have the right without a prior notice to terminate the fulfilment of the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment in case the e-invoice sender has not submitted a single e-invoice to the e-invoice receiver for 24 (twenty four) subsequent months.
- 7.4.2.29. The Payer shall pay the Bank for execution of the order to execute an E. invoice automatic payment and for the services provided on such basis at the time when the transaction is completed according to the applicable rates of fees for the services and transactions set in the Bank's pricelist.

9. Duties of payment service users in relation to payment instruments

- 9.1. The Customer entitled to use the payment instrument shall have the following duties:

- 9.1.1. To use the payment instrument in accordance with the provisions regulating the issuance and use of the payment instrument;
- 9.1.2. having found out about any loss, theft, illegal acquisition of the payment instrument or about its unauthorised use, also, about facts or suspicions that personalised security data of his payment instrument have become known to or may be available to any third persons, to immediately give the Bank or the entity indicated by it a relevant notification, in observance of the provisions regulating the issuance and use of the payment instrument.

- 9.2. Upon receipt of the payment instrument, the Customer must take actions to protect the personalised security data of the payment instrument.

10. Communication between the payment service provider and the payment service user

- 10.1. Any and all communications, statements of account, reports, certifications, confirmations or any other information, including the Bank's service rules (hereinafter the 'notifications') must be made in writing (i.e. a relevant document must be drawn up), other than in cases provided for by legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania and/or under agreements as well as any other documents submitted to the Bank (applications, forms, etc.), where notifications may be provided verbally or must be notarised. Documents sent by telecommunication means or by electronic means (by fax, teletype or via the Internet) shall be deemed to be documents made in writing.

- 10.2. The Bank shall deliver notifications to the Customer in person or announce them publicly.

- 10.2.1. The Bank's notifications shall be delivered in person or told personally to the Customer, also, sent by mail, e-mail, telefax or any other telecommunication means, via the Internet bank.

- 10.2.2. the Bank's public notifications shall be placed at the Bank's website and made available at the premises of the Bank's Customer servicecenters. Such notifications may be additionally published at any national newspaper selected by the Bank (available in an area with more than 60 per cent of the population of the Republic of Lithuania).

- 10.3. The Customer's notifications to the Bank shall be delivered or told directly to the Bank's authorised employees, also, sent by mail, telefax, telephone and other telecommunication means, by e-mail, via the Internet bank. If the Customer gives a notification verbally, the Bank shall have the right to record the conversation pursuant to the procedure established by laws.

- 10.4. The Bank must ensure continuous and quality functioning of the Internet bank and the Bank's website (to the extent it depends on the Bank). The Bank, however shall have the right to improve its IT systems and eliminate any failures found, even if this may result and/or results in any interference with providing information and/or services to its Customers. The Bank must plan works related to the improvement of its IT systems and elimination of any failures in them and wherever possible carry out such works during night time. In case of any extraordinary - circumstances and important reasons the Bank shall have the right to eliminate IT system failures at any time of the day. Works for the elimination of IT system failures shall be carried out within the shortest possible period of time. At the time when the Bank's IT system improvement and/or elimination of failures is performed, fulfilment of any and all obligations of the Bank that are executed via the IT systems shall be suspended.

- 10.5. Each party shall be entitled to select a way of delivering notifications, other than in cases peremptorily established by legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania and/or agreements as well as any other documents (applications, forms, etc.) submitted to the Bank. The Bank's notification announced publicly shall be deemed duly transferred and delivered to the Customer, other than in cases peremptorily indicated by legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania and/or agreements, where the Bank must deliver a notification to the Customer in person. Information that constitutes the Bank's secret may be handed in or told only in person.
- 10.6. Notifications delivered by the parties shall be deemed received:
- 10.6.1. if a notification has been delivered verbally (including by phone) – at the time it is being told;
 - 10.6.2. if a notification is handed in directly – on the day it is handed in;
 - 10.6.3. if a notification is sent by mail – after a 5 (five) calendar days' period (if sent to / received from outside the Republic of Lithuania – after a 14 (fourteen) calendar days' period) since the day of its dispatch;
 - 10.6.4. if a notification is sent by e-mail, telefax, telephone and other means of communication – on the nearest business day in the country of the payee since its dispatch;
 - 10.6.5. if a notification is announced via the Internet bank – on the nearest business day in the payee's country following the day of its announcement;
 - 10.6.6. if a notification is announced publicly – on the day of its announcement;
 - 10.6.7. if the payee has confirmed earlier receipt of the notification than mentioned above – on the confirmed day of its receipt.
- 10.7. Name and surname or name of a legal person, addresses, telephone, fax numbers and other details (hereinafter the 'contact information'), required to be indicated when sending notifications by the parties, shall be indicated in the agreements or any other documents (applications, forms, etc.) submitted to the Bank.
- 10.8. If the agreement includes multiple persons (co-borrowers, account co-holders, etc.), the Bank shall have the right to address notifications related to such service agreement to any of the multiple persons. Such person must forward the information received to other multiple persons indicated in the service agreement.
- 10.9. If the agreement or any other documents (applications, forms, etc.) provided to the Bank does not contain the Customer's contact information, the Bank shall have the right to give the notification according to the latest contact information indicated by the Customer. If the agreement does not contain the Bank's contact information, the Customer shall have the right to give the notification according to the contact information indicated at the Bank's website.
- 10.10. The parties must immediately inform each other of any change in their contact information. At the Bank's request the Customer must provide relevant documents in evidence of a change in the contact information. In case of failure to perform these duties, it shall be deemed that any notification sent according to the latest details indicated to the other party has been duly sent, and any obligation fulfilled based on such details has been duly fulfilled.
- 10.11. The parties must immediately provide each other with information of any circumstances that may be important for performing under the agreement. At the Bank's request, the Customer must provide documents in evidence of such circumstances, irrespective of the fact that the information has been provided to public registries, also, documents, evidencing the following: a change in sample signature of the Customer or of the Customer's representative, initiation or instigation of the Customer's Bankruptcy, restructuring proceeding, the Customer's liquidation, reorganisation, rearrangement, etc.
- 10.12. The agreement must establish that the Parties must periodically provide each other with certain notifications related to their performance under the agreement.
- 10.13. If the Customer does not receive notifications from the Bank that the Customer had to receive from the Bank under the agreement or has submitted his separate request to the Bank in order to receive them, the Customer must immediately inform the Bank about it.
- 10.14. The Customer must, having received a notification from the Bank, immediately check the correctness and accuracy of the information contained in it and, having found any discrepancy, inaccuracy or mistake immediately inform the Bank about it. The present clause shall not be applied to the Bank's notifications that according to their purport, the agreement or legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania need not be checked and/or approved by the Customer.
- 10.15. Notifications sent by the Bank to the Customer cannot be deemed to be the Bank's offer to the Customer to execute the agreement or use any services, except the cases where the Bank's notification clearly states that exactly such offer is being made.
- 10.16. The payment service rules as well as the pricelist shall be published in the Lithuanian and in the English languages. The agreements shall be executed in the Lithuanian language. At the Customer's request and with the Bank's consent, agreements may be executed in the English language. The Bank shall have the right to request the Customer to compensate the costs for translation of the agreement into a foreign language.
- 10.17. The Bank's notifications delivered to the Customer in person shall be made in the Lithuanian language. The Bank shall also be entitled to make such notification in the language in which the agreement has been executed. At the Bank's consent, the Bank's notifications may be made in any other language requested by the Customer. The Bank's notifications publicly announced on the Bank's website shall be made in the Lithuanian and in the English languages. In all other cases the Bank's notification shall be made in the Lithuanian language.
- 10.18. The Customer's notification to the Bank may be made in the Lithuanian and the English languages.
- 10.19. In case of any discrepancy between the texts of the agreement or any other document in the Lithuanian and any foreign language, the text in Lithuanian shall prevail.
- 10.20. The documents provided to the Bank must be drafted in the Lithuanian and/or any other language indicated by the Bank. If documents provided to the Bank are made in any foreign language, the Bank shall be entitled to request their translation into the Lithuanian and/or any other language indicated by the Bank by a competent translator acceptable to the Bank. The Bank shall be also entitled to request that authenticity of the translator's signature is notarised.

- 10.21. The Bank must request that documents drawn up in a foreign country are apostilled or legalised pursuant to the procedure established by legal acts.
- 10.22. The Customer shall be entitled to any time familiarise with the effective version of the framework agreement and of the payment service rules, also, with any version of the framework agreement and of the payment service rules that was effective after the day of execution of the framework agreement. The aforementioned documents and information may be announced at the Bank's website, and if they are not announced and a separate request of the Customer has been received, they must be provided to the Customer in writing or using any other durable medium.

11. Security and rectifying measures

- 11.1. The Customer must immediately notify the Bank in writing of his personal identification document theft or loss in any other manner. Said requirement is set with the aim to secure the Customer funds from any possible illegal third-party actions.
- 11.2. The Customer entitled to use the payment instrument must adhere to the terms and conditions specified under clause 9.1. of the present Rules.
- 11.3. Upon receipt of the payment instrument, the Customer must adhere to the terms and conditions established under clause 9.2. of the present Rules.
- 11.4. The Bank shall have the right to block the payment account (i.e. to suspend payment transactions in the payment account, in full or in part) and/or the payment instrument (to prohibit using it, in full or in part):
 - 11.4.1. due to any objective reasons related to funds in the payment account and/or to the security of the payment instrument;
 - 11.4.2. due to suspected illegal or unfair use of funds in the payment account or of the payment instrument or due to highly increased risk related to the Customer's potential inability to duly meet his payment obligation (also when using the payment instrument and credit line);
 - 11.4.3. if the Customer fails to perform the agreement;
 - 11.4.4. if the Bank has reasonable suspicion that any third parties may illegally use the funds in the payment account and/or the payment instrument;
 - 11.4.5. if the Bank has reasonable suspicion that the payment account and/or payment instrument may potentially be used or has been used for criminal activities;
 - 11.4.6. if the Bank obtains reasonable information about the Customer's death;
 - 11.4.7. if the Bank is provided with controversial information about persons authorised to represent the Customer;
 - 11.4.8. If the funds in the account are seized lien or the Customer's right to use the funds in the account is subject to other restrictions;
 - 11.4.9. If the interbank settlement systems do not operate, as well as the global interbank financial market, market liquidity is decreased, or given other unusual market conditions, important reasons or in the case where a risks is unacceptable to the Bank;
 - 11.4.10. in the cases established by laws or any other legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania or under the agreement, or any other agreements concluded with the Bank.

The Bank shall have the right to restrict settlements in risky counties. The list of risky countries is made available on the Bank's website. When going to the countries included in the list of risky countries the Cardholder must inform the Bank by phone or via the Internet bank in which country and to which Card temporary restrictions on its use should be applied (e.g. suspend payment transactions).
- 11.5. The payment account and/or the payment instrument shall be blocked at the Customer's initiative, if the Customer submits a relevant request to the Bank or informs the Bank in a manner established under the agreement that the payment instrument issued to the Customer has been stolen or lost in any other way and funds in the payment account and/or the payment instrument are used or may be used in any other illegal manner. The Bank shall have the right to demand that the Customer's verbally provides a request to block the payment account and/or that the payment instrument is subsequently confirmed in writing or in any other way acceptable to the Bank. If the payment account and/or payment instrument was blocked at the Customer's initiative, the Bank may unblock it only upon receipt of the Customer's request in writing, unless otherwise established under the agreement. The Bank shall have the right to replace the blocked payment instrument with a new one.
- 11.6. In the above cases the Bank shall notify the Customer, in a manner established in these Rules and/or the agreement, of blocking the payment account and/or the payment instrument and reasons for such blocking, if possible, before blocking the payment account and/or the payment instrument and no later than immediately upon its blocking, except in cases when providing of such information would impair the security measures or would be prohibited under any other legal acts;
- 11.7. The Bank shall unblock the payment account and/or the payment instrument (or replace it with a new payment instrument) when reasons for blocking the payment account and/or the payment instrument cease to exist;
- 11.8. The Bank shall not be liable for the Customer's losses incurred as a result of blocking of the payment account and/or the payment instrument, and shall not pay the default interest defined in the Rules and/or the agreement, if such blocking was made pursuant to the procedure established by the Rules and/or the agreement and at the conditions defined in the Rules and/or the agreement.
- 11.9. Payment transaction shall be deemed authorised only after the Customer has given his consent to execute it. The form and procedure for giving such consent shall be defined in the agreement. The Customer may authorise the payment transaction either before or after its execution, if the Customer and the Bank have so agreed. If the above-referred consent is not available, it shall be deemed that the payment transaction has not been authorised.
- 11.10. The Customer may any time before the point in time of irrevocability, indicated under Items 6.3.3–6.3.6, cancel his consent to execute the payment transaction. A consent to execute multiple payment transactions may also be revoked, in which case all further payment transactions shall be deemed unauthorised.

- 11.11. If the Customer is a Consumer or private individual conducting commercial or individual business activities, and denies having authorised a payment transaction that has been executed or maintains that the payment transaction has been improperly executed, the Bank shall have the duty to prove that authenticity of the payment transaction was confirmed, that it was duly registered, reflected in the accounts, and no technical or any other hindrances had any impact on it.
- 11.12. If the Customer is a Consumer or private individual conducting commercial or individual business activities, and denies having authorised a payment transaction that has been executed, the use of the Bank's registered payment instrument shall not necessarily constitute sufficient evidence that the Customer has authorised the payment transaction, has acted unfairly or has intentionally or through gross negligence failed to fulfil one or several duties established by clauses 11.2 and 11.3. If the Customer is not a consumer, the use of the Bank's registered payment instrument shall constitute sufficient evidence that the Customer has authorised the payment transaction.
- 11.13. If the Customer is a Consumer or private individual conducting commercial or individual business activities, he may be held liable for losses incurred due to unauthorised payment transaction in an amount of EUR 50 where such losses are incurred due to the use of a lost or stolen payment instrument or illegal acquisition of a payment instrument. If the Customer is not a consumer, any and all losses that are incurred due to the above-indicated reasons shall be covered by the Customer.
- 11.14. The Customer shall be held liable for all losses incurred due to unauthorised payment transactions if the Customer has sustained them as a result of acting unfairly or having failed, has intentionally or through gross negligence, to take actions to protect the personalised security data and/or to fulfil one or several duties established in clauses 11.2 and 11.3. In these cases the limitation of the maximum loss amount set in clause 11.13. shall not be applicable.
- 11.15. After the Customer gives notification indicated under clause 11.5 to the Bank, the Customer's losses that have been sustained due to loss, theft or illegal acquisition of the payment instrument shall be covered by the Bank, except if the Customer has acted unfairly. In those cases where the Bank does not require Strong Authentication and the Customer is a Consumer or private individual conducting commercial or individual business activities, the Customer shall be held liable for losses incurred due to unauthorised payment transactions only if the Customer has acted unfairly.
- 11.16. The Customer shall not incur any losses if:
- 11.16.1. Before execution of a payment transactions he (when the Customer is a consumer) could not have detected any loss, theft, illegal acquisition of the payment instrument, except if the Customer has acted unfairly;
- 11.16.2. Unauthorised payment transaction has taken place through the Bank's fault.
- 11.17. Upon becoming aware of an unauthorised payment transaction, the Bank not later than by the end of the next Bank business day, shall:
- 11.17.1. Refund the unauthorised payment transaction amount;
- 11.17.2. Restore the payment account balance;
- 11.17.3. Ensure that the Customer incurs no losses due to an unauthorised payment transaction with regard to the interest due to or from him.
- This clause shall not apply if the Bank has any doubts about the lawfulness of a payment operation or suspicions of fraud.
- 11.18. If the Bank does not create the conditions to anytime notify about loss, theft or illegal acquisition of the payment instrument, the losses incurred due to unauthorised use of the payment instrument shall be covered by the Bank, except the cases where the Customer acted unfairly.
- 11.19. The Customer must no less than once a month check information on payment transactions in the payment account. The circumstance that the Customer did not request the statement of account to be sent thereto shall not release the Customer from fulfilling said obligation.
- 11.20. The Customer must notify the Bank of any unauthorised or defectively executed payment transactions, also, of any other error, discrepancy or inaccuracy in the statement of account. Such notification must be give immediately, however, no later than within 60 calendar days as of the day when the Bank, in the Customer's opinion, executed an unauthorised payment transaction or defectively executed the payment transaction.
- 11.21. If the Customer is a Consumer or private individual conducting commercial or individual business activities, he must immediately notify the Bank in writing about any unauthorised payment transaction or defective debiting of funds to the payment account, however, no later than within 13 months as of the day of such debiting to the payment account. If the Customer is not a Consumer or private individual conducting commercial or individual business activities, the Customer must give the notification indicated in the present clause to the Bank within 60 calendar days from the day of funds debiting.
- 11.22. If the Customer fails to give the notifications at the time indicated in clauses 11.20 and 11.21, it shall be deemed that the Customer has unconditionally agreed with the payment transactions executed in the payment account.
- 11.23. The terms specified under clauses 11.20 and 11.21 of the present Rules shall not apply, if the Bank has not provided information to the Customer on an unauthorised or defectively executed payment transaction or has not created conditions to familiarise with it.
- 11.24. Having received the Customer's notification within the period indicated under clauses 11.20 and 11.21 and having established that the payment transaction has not been authorised by the Customer, the Bank shall immediately refund to the Customer the amount of such unauthorised payment transaction and shall restore the balance of the account to which said amount was debited that would exist if the payment transaction had not been executed, other than in cases specified under clauses 11.13 to 11.17, where the liability for any unauthorised payment transaction rests with the Customer.
- 11.25. If the Customer, when giving the payment order, indicates the unique identifier, such payment order shall be deemed duly executed, if it has been executed according to the indicated unique identifier. When crediting or debiting funds to the payment account according to the unique identifier indicated in the payment order received by the Bank, the Bank shall have the right to refrain from checking whether such unique identifier corresponds to the name and surname and/or the personal number / name and/or company code of the payment account

- owner. If the unique identifier provided by the Customer is erroneous, the Bank shall not be liable under clause 11.27 for non-execution of a payment transaction or defective execution, however, it must seek to recover the funds of the payment transaction.
- 11.26. If besides indicating the unique identifier the Customer also provides additional information, the Bank shall be liable only for the execution of the payment transaction according to the unique identifier indicated by the Customer.
 - 11.27. If the Customer (payer) has initiated the payment transaction, the Bank shall be liable for due execution of the payment transaction. If the Bank can prove to the Customer (payer) and in certain cases to the payee's payment service provider that the payment service provider has received the amount of the payment transaction, the payee's payment service provider shall be liable against the payee for due execution of the payment transaction.
 - 11.28. If the liability as per clause 11.27 arises to the Bank as the payer's payment service provider, the Bank shall immediately refund to the Customer (payer) the amount of non-executed or defectively executed payment transaction or shall restore the balance of the payment account to which such amount was debited that would exist if the defectively executed payment transaction had not been executed and shall ensure that the Customer (payer) incurs no losses due to the interest payable to the Bank or receivable from the Bank.
 - 11.29. If the liability under clause 11.27 arises to the Bank as the payee's payment service provider, the Bank shall immediately credit the amount of the payment transaction to the Customer's (payee's) payment account and/or shall enable the Customer (payee) to access it and shall ensure that the Customer (payer) incurs no losses due to the interest payable to the Bank or receivable from the Bank. If the Bank, upon receipt of the payment transaction amount due to the Customer (payee), is unable to credit it to the Customer's (payee's) account, it shall immediately, but not later than within 2 (two) business days, refund the payment transaction amount to the payer.
 - 11.30. Where the Payment Transactions directly initiated by the Customer (payer) is executed with delay, the Bank upon receipt of the Customer's (payer's) request shall apply to the payee's payment service provider to ensure that the payee incurs no losses due to the interest payable to the payment service provider or receivable from it (if compare with the situation in which the payment transaction would have been executed properly).
 - 11.31. Where the Payment Order initiated by the Customer (payee) or through the Customer (payee) is transferred with delay, the Bank shall ensure that the Customer (payee) incurs no losses due to the interest payable to him or receivable from him.
 - 11.32. In case of late execution of the payment transaction or invalid limitation of funds in the account through the Bank's fault, the Bank shall at the Customer's request pay to the Customer default interest of 0.02 per cent as per each day of delay on the amount of such late transaction or on the payment transaction amount, which has been invalidly limited through the Bank's fault.
 - 11.33. The Bank shall not be liable for the Customer's sustained additional costs or incurred indirect losses (non-received income, profit, etc.) in connection with the non-executed or defectively executed payment transaction.
 - 11.34. In case the Customer (payer) initiates a payment transaction and no payment transaction is executed or is defectively executed, the Bank as the payer's payment service provider must immediately in any event at the Customer's (payer's) request take actions to find out the reasons and notify the Customer (payer) of the outcome.
 - 11.35. If the payment order is initiated by the Customer (payee) or via the Customer (payee), the Bank, as the payee's payment service provider, shall immediately transfer the payment order to the payee's payment service provider. The Bank as the payee's payment service provider shall be liable against the Customer (payee) for due transfer of the payment order to the payer's payment service provider.
 - 11.36. If the payment transaction, for which the payee's payment service provider is not held liable under clause 11.35, is not executed, the Bank shall be liable against the Customer (payer) and shall immediately refund to the Customer (payer) the amount of the non-executed payment transaction or shall restore the balance of the account to which the amount was debited.
 - 11.37. If the payment order is initiated by the Customer (payee) or via the Customer (payee), and the transaction is not executed or is defectively executed, the Bank as the payee's Bank must in any event at the Customer's (payee's) request immediately take actions to find out the reasons and notify the Customer (payee) of the outcome.
 - 11.38. The Bank shall be liable against the Customer for the commission fees and interest of the Customer due to non-execution or defective execution of the payment transaction through the Bank's fault. The Bank shall also compensate to the Customer for the interest the Customer is held liable for due to delayed execution of payment transactions through the Bank's fault.
 - 11.39. The Bank's and the Customer's liability shall not apply in case of any abnormal or unforeseeable circumstances that were beyond the control of the person pleading for the application of such circumstances, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all efforts to the contrary, or where this is defined by legal acts regulating the Bank's activities.
 - 11.40. The Customer (payer) shall have the right to recover from the Bank the entire amount of the payment transaction initiated via the payee and already executed, if both of the following conditions are met:
 - 11.40.1. the payment transaction was authorised without indicating the precise amount of the payment transaction;
 - 11.40.2. the payment transaction amount is higher than the amount which the Customer (payer) could have reasonably expected taking into consideration his previous costs, agreement terms and conditions as well as any other circumstances, other than those related to currency exchange when the payment transaction involved currency exchange at the rate agreed on by the Customer (payer) and the Bank. If the Customer (payer) gives his consent to execute payment transactions initiated via the payee indicating the limit for such transactions (for a one-off transaction or transactions executed within a certain period of time), it shall be deemed that he could have reasonably expected exactly such an amount from said payment transactions.
 - If the Customer is not a Consumer, the provisions of the present clause shall not apply, and the Customer shall not be entitled to recover the amount involved in the above-mentioned payment transaction.
 - 11.41. At the Bank's request the Customer (payer) must provide data on the terms and conditions established under clauses 11.40.1 and 11.40.2.

- 11.42. The Customer (payer) shall not be entitled to a refund of the amounts of payment transactions initiated through the payee according to clause 11.40, if the payer has given his consent to execute the payment transaction directly to his Bank, and the Bank or the payee has provided, in an agreed manner, the Customer (payer) with information on the future payment transaction or has enabled to familiarise with it no less than 4 (four) weeks before the envisaged date of execution of the payment transaction.
- 11.43. The Customer (payer), who is a Consumer, shall be entitled to request the Bank to refund the amount of the authorised payment transaction initiated through the payee within 8 (eight) weeks since the day of debiting the funds from the payment account.
- 11.44. The Bank, after having received the Customer's (payer's), who is a Consumer, request to refund the amount of the payment transaction, within 10 (ten) business days shall refund the entire amount or shall indicate reasons for its refusal for a refund as well as the procedure for an appeal against such refusal.
- 11.45. Where the Bank in the cases and pursuant to the procedure established under clauses 11.40 to 11.44 above refunds to the payer the amount of the payment transaction, the payee (the Customer) who receives such payment transaction amount must immediately refund the amount of said payment transaction transferred to his payment account to the Bank and agrees that the Bank, pursuant to the procedure established under clauses 5.3 and 5.6 of the present Rules, debit such payment transaction amount from his (payee's) accounts with the Bank.
- 11.46. The Customer is aware that in process of executing a payment order submitted by the Customer (payer) to the Bank, credit institutions and payment systems operating abroad may be obligated by the state where they operate or by the local laws to disclose the information about the Customer (payer) to the competent authorities.

12. Amendments to the agreements

- 12.1. The Bank shall be entitled to change the Agreement entered into with the Customer, the Payment Service Rules or the pricelist. The Bank shall inform the Customer who is a consumer of any amendments to the agreement, the payment service rules or the pricelist no later than 60 calendar days before the day on which the amendments will take effect and in case of the Customer who is not a consumer, no later than 30 days before the effective day of such amendments, unless otherwise agreed between the parties. The Customer before the day of entry into force of the proposed amendments may disagree with them or reject them. Said information on the amendment to the agreement and/or the payment service rules and/or the pricelist shall be provided to the Customer in person or shall be made available publicly. It shall be deemed that the Customer agrees with such amendments and they shall become effective on the set day of their entry into force, if before such date of their entry into force he gives no notification to the payment service provider of his disagreement with such amendments. In such event, the Customer shall be entitled, immediately and without paying any commission, to terminate the framework agreement before the day on which the amendments enter into force. The Bank shall have the right to notify the Customer of the changes which do not worsen the Customer's situation disregarding the time limits established above in this paragraph. The establishment of the Commission for new Services shall not be treated as the worsening the Customer's situation.
- 12.2. The Bank shall be entitled to change the Unique Identifier if its change is related to replacement, implementation or upgrade of the Bank's core information systems. The Bank shall notify the Customer of change of the Unique Identifier following the procedure laid down in clause 12.1. Upon change of the Unique Identifier, the Bank shall be entitled, without the Customer's consent, to link all or individual services with the changed Unique Identifier or, subject to prior notification to the Customer, to terminate the provision of all or individual services linked with the unique identifier (e.g. payment Card, e-invoice automated payment, periodic payments, etc.).
- 12.3. If the Customer does not avail of the right to terminate the agreement before the effective date of the amendments, it shall be deemed that the Customer agrees with the amendments made.

13. Effective period and expiry of agreements

- 13.1. The framework agreement shall continue in effect without any fixed period of time, unless otherwise defined under the agreement.
- 13.2. The one-off payment agreement shall continue in effect until the day of execution of the payment transaction specified under the one-off payment agreement.
- 13.3. Any other agreements on payment services shall continue in effect for a period indicated therein.
- 13.4. The Customer shall have the right to terminate the framework agreement upon giving the Bank a relevant prior minimum 30 days' notification.
- 13.5. The Bank shall have the right to charge the commission fee provided in the pricelist for termination of the agreement if the Customer unilaterally terminates the agreement before the expiry of a 6 months' period from the agreement date.
- 13.6. The Bank shall provide the Customer, who is a Consumer and who terminates the framework agreement, free of charge with information on Payment Transactions executed in the Customer's who is a Consumer account during the past 36 months and the Statement of fees for the period from the beginning of the current calendar year until the account agreement termination date. This information shall not be provided in the Customer who is a Consumer refuses to receive such information by notifying the Bank in writing in paper format or by using another durable medium.
- 13.7. The Bank may terminate the framework agreement concluded for an unlimited period of time with at least 60 (sixty) calendar days' notice to the Customer, while the Customer who is not a Consumer shall be given at least 15 calendar days' notification before the date of termination of the framework agreement, unless otherwise established by law.
- 13.8. The Bank shall be also entitled to terminate the framework agreement by notifying the Customer under the procedure and within the terms set in clause 13.7 if:
 - 13.8.1. for more than a year the payment account balance is zero and no transactions have been performed in it, or
 - 13.8.2. for more than a year none transactions have been performed in the payment account and its balance does not reach the minimum amount of EUR 50 or its foreign currency equivalent respectively, and if the Customer is a consumer - its balance does not reach the minimum amount of EUR 50 or its foreign currency equivalent respectively, and within the respective period of notification of termination specified in clause 13.7 the Customer fails to increase the balance of the payment account up to the respective minimum amount indicated in this clause.

- 13.9. The commission fee regularly charged for payment transactions shall be paid by the Customer proportionately until the day of termination of the framework agreement. If the commission fee was paid in advance, it shall be proportionately refunded. This clause shall apply only to the Customers who are Consumers.
- 13.10. Payment transactions initiated under the agreement before the day of termination of the agreement, shall be finalised abiding by the provisions of the agreement that were effective before the termination of the agreement, unless the Bank and the Customer have agreed otherwise.
- 13.11. In the cases established by law, the Bank shall have the right to immediately terminate the framework agreement or to reject execution or initiation of a payment transaction.
- 13.12. The Bank shall have the right to immediately suspend or terminate the provision of payment services in respect of the other than Euro currencies if Bank has decided to stop provision of services in the respective currency or if due to suspension or termination of the services of correspondent banks or other related service providers or due to the replacement, implementation or upgrade of the Bank's core information systems the Bank is unable to provide payment services in the respective currency. In this case the Customer, upon receipt of the Bank's notification, within the period indicated in the Bank's notification must convert the funds to the currency, in which Bank provides services, or must transfer the funds to another account within the period indicated in the Bank's notification. If the Customer fails to perform the above actions within the period indicated in the Bank's notification, the Bank shall be entitled without prior notice to transfer funds to the account, from which the funds were received, or to convert the funds in other currency into euros based on the Reference Exchange Rate without prior notice and credit them into the Customer's account in euros or, if the Customer holds no account in euros, to transfer the funds converted into euros to the Bank's internal account in which they will be held until demanded by the Customer. In this case the Bank shall not be liable for losses incurred by the Customer due to such currency conversion.
- 13.13. In the cases where the payment account cannot be closed in accordance with the requirements of the legal acts, the payment account may be closed subject to removal of all obstacles identified.

14. Dispute resolution and protection of Customers' rights

- 14.1. Agreements executed by and between the parties shall be subject to the law of the Republic of Lithuania.
 - 14.2. Customer complaints regarding the Bank's actions whereby the Bank could have violated the requirements of laws or agreements that regulate the provision of payment services and/or the Customer's legitimate interests shall be analysed by the Bank. The Bank must analyse the Customer's written complaints and respond to the Customer in writing within 15 (thirty) business days after the day of receipt of a relevant complaint.
 - 14.3. In special cases where due to the reasons beyond the Bank's control it is impossible to give a reply within 15 business days, the Bank shall send a preliminary reply and shall indicate the reasons for delay and a time limit by which it will send a final reply. The time limit for providing the final reply shall not exceed 35 business days.
 - 14.4. Customer complaints shall be analysed by the Bank free of charge.
 - 14.5. If the Bank's response to the Customer's complaint does not satisfy the Customer or no response has been provided, the Customer shall have the right to refer to the court in accordance with the procedure established by law. If the Customer is a Consumer he shall have the right in accordance with the procedure established by law to apply for extrajudicial dispute resolution to the Bank of Lithuania in writing or by e-mail (Totorių str. 4, LT- 01121 Vilnius, website www.lb.lt), that investigates disputes of consumers and financial market participants arising from the provision of financial services.
